United States Mint
Gift Collection*

Serving America Since 1792.

Presenting 1996 Olympic Coins At Discount Prices—
But Only For A Limited Time.

Commemorate the triumph of the 100th anniversary of the modern Olympic Games with U.S. Olympic Coins of the Atlanta Centennial Olympic Games in gold, silver and clad.

You might already own 1995 Series One and Two. But this is the first time the Mint has made the 1996 Series coins available for individual purchase. And now you can add these 1996 coins to your collection at special pre-issue prices. But you must order by November 3, 1995. After this date, they will be available at regular prices.

Each of the new 1996 coins features a distinctive design of an Olympic sport, like swimming, soccer and rowing, to name just a few. And they are available in a variety of combinations — single coin, two-coin sets and four-coin sets. But don't just take our word for it. Take a look at the photographs on pages 4, 10, 13 and 15 to see how intricately designed and beautiful they really are.

Remember:

- ✓ These are two completely new series for 1996.
- ✓ This is the first offering of pre-issue prices.
- ✓ Pre-issue prices are good only until November 3, 1995.

Hosting the 100th anniversary of the modern Olympic Games is truly a proud moment and a once-in-a-lifetime event for our country. Don't miss your chance to get a piece of sports history. Remember, pre-issue prices are for a limited time. Be sure to place your order today. And don't forget, Series One and Two are still available at regular prices, making this the perfect time to get your hands on the complete collection of Olympic Coins.

For a listing of all of the U.S. Olympic Coins of the Atlanta Centennial Olympic Games, refer to the product listing at the end of this Catalogue.

Something New From The Civil War Collection.

Collectors and history enthusiasts alike should not miss out on the unique products being introduced through the 1995 Civil War Battlefield Commemorative Coin Program. Featured in the Mint's 1995 Gift Catalogue are a number of collectibles that present an alternative to the everyday gift.

Fine craftsmanship and history are brought together in elegant jewelry, framed art and a reproduction of an authentic Civil War photo case that was molded from a rare original. Take a look on page 2 and you'll see that instead of photographs, this replica features beautiful Civil War Commemorative Coins in either two-coin or three-coin proof sets.

Turn to pages 8 and 11 to see truly exquisite pieces of jewelry featuring Civil War Commemorative Coins. On pages 2, 10 and 13, we show the framed prints by renowned Civil War artist Don Troiani, the designer for the obverse of the Civil War Coins.

Coin collectors will appreciate this year's Prestige Set, shown on page 18, which features the Civil War Silver Dollar and Clad Half Dollar with proof versions of the 1995 circulating coins (one-cent, five-cent, dime, quarter and half dollar).

For more information on these, and all of the Civil War products, refer to the product listing at the back of this Catalogue.

A MESSAGE FROM THE DIRECTOR OF THE MINT

Dear Collector:

For 200 years, the United States Mint has produced coins that deserve a place alongside the art, antiques, heirlooms and finery that reflect your taste as a collector or a gift-giver. So I take great pleasure in the new look we've given our 1995 United States Mint Gift Catalogue, a look that showcases our coins with other collectibles of enduring appeal and excellence.

The following pages offer an inviting blend of traditional and new Mint products of the most distinguished craftsmanship and quality.

Once again, we're proud to present numismatic mainstays like our ever-popular proof sets, the legendary beauty of American Gold and Silver Eagles, and historical medals that reach back to our Nation's earliest days.

You'll also find the latest additions to our line of commemorative products — coins and medals that capture the splendor of the Olympic Games, the drama of the Civil War, the extraordinary contributions of African Americans, and the excitement of the Special Olympics World Games.

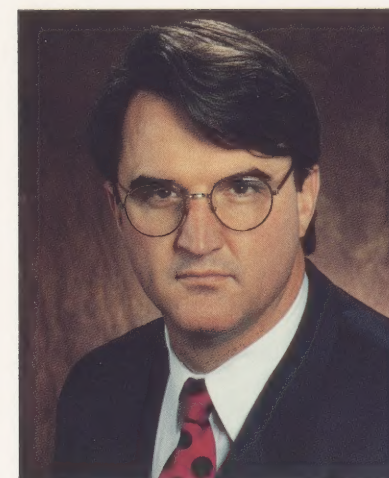

This year we are offering the most distinctive combinations and packaging ever, including my personal favorite — a faithful replica of a Civil War era photo case — and some other surprises I'll let you discover for yourself.

I especially invite you to see our striking and expanded selection of jewelry items—functional yet elegant, perfect accessories, sure to draw compliments when you wear them, unforgettable as gifts.

Please enjoy your Catalogue. The United States Mint products shown in these pages are treasures that show the style and discernment of those who appreciate the finest.

Best regards,

*Philip N. Diehl
Director
United States Mint*
